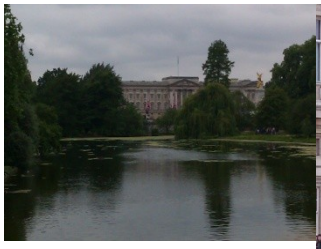
My trip to London

I left at 6:14 am from the RER station and I arrived at 6:55 am. I found the journey tiring
At 8:13 am I got on the Eurostar and I ate my breakfast.
I arrived at St. Pancras Station at 9:37.

Then I left the station and I took pictures of Big Ben, the Houses of Parliament and Westminster Abbey

Then I walked up to Buckingham Palace to see the changing of the Guard that was at 11:30 am



After seeing this I went to have a picnic and then I had a ride up London Eye. From up the wheel, the view was magnificent, we could see almost all of London.

Then I bought a souvenir photo with all my friends.
Then I visited the National Gallery at 3:15 pm to see the paintings I had studied in class. They were more beautiful in real life than on paper...

At 4:00 pm I took the subway to go shopping in Oxford Street. I bought lots of clothes and souvenirs.
I also ate a waffle with Nutella
Then at 5p.m it was time to take the subway to go to St Pancras station where I bought a sandwich for dinner at 7:40 p.m in St Pancras station and then I took the Eurostar at 7:02 pm where I ate my sandwich

Then I arrived at Gare du Nord at 10:17 p.m where I took a train that brought me back to St Ouen L'Aumone at 11:42 p.m
